About the Opportunity

REACH Edmonton is recruiting for Volunteer Board Members to bring their diverse perspectives, knowledge, skills, lived and professional experiences to this leadership role.

We recognize the importance of our Board accurately reflecting the communities our work aims to benefit. We are encouraging qualified individuals who have lived experience as a member of equity-seeking communities as we seek to increase representation from these groups.

About REACH Edmonton

REACH is Edmonton's Council for Safe Communities. We are a backbone organization striving for collective impact. We support and bring together organizations, community groups and Edmontonians to co-develop solutions to make Edmonton a safer city for everyone. We partner on prevention strategies that address the root causes of conditions that place children, youth, and families at risk of poor outcomes.

REACH Vision

A city in which every Edmontonian contributes to a community where everyone is safe and feels safe.

REACH Mission

To inspire citizen engagement and coordinated agency action to strengthen and sustain community safety in Edmonton.

About the Role

Remuneration

None. Board members serve in a voluntary capacity; however, members will be compensated for any approved out-of-pocket receipts such as parking, bus fare, taxis, including childcare (for meeting attendance) incurred as a result of conducting board activities.

To Apply

Please email your resume to the attention of Robert Philp at hr@reachedmonton.ca.

Donna Ludvigsen (donna.ludvigsen@outlook.com), REACH Edmonton Board Chair, is also available to answer questions about the role and selection process.

The Selection Process

The Board Recruitment Sub-Committee will review all applications, interview a short-list of candidates, and nominate four individuals to REACH Membership for election at the Annual General Meeting in June 2021.

We will make every effort to accommodate candidates' needs in all parts of the recruitment process.

Commitment to Equity

REACH Edmonton is committed to inclusion and equity and strives for a Board that reflects the rich diversity of our community. At REACH Edmonton, diversity means understanding, recognizing, and valuing the differences that make each person unique. We are committed to removing barriers faced by under-represented groups.
